Salted egg is a simple Asian recipe. It is eaten as an appetizer; however, it complements main dishes well. The original Asian recipe uses duck eggs. Duck eggs are large and have a creamier texture than chicken eggs. You can use chicken eggs if duck eggs are not available.

Step 1
Place 6 uncooked eggs into a large jar. Carefully place the eggs on top of one another to avoid cracking.

Step 2
Combine 1/2 cup of salt and 3 cups of water. Stir the mixture until the salt dissolves.

Step 3
Pour the saltwater onto the eggs inside the jar. Seal it tightly. Let the jar sit at room temperature for 30 days.

Step 4
Take the eggs out of the jar and boil them. Refrigerate the eggs after boiling and eat them whenever you want.

Question 22:

Read the story and answer the questions that follow.

One day, the Kingdom of Renosio was attacked by a group of ogres. The fairies and elves who lived in the kingdom were taken by surprise. They tried to escape but not all of them succeeded. The ogres captured many fairies and elves and put them in dungeons

One fairy named Rosemary escaped through a secret passage. She knew about the four gnomes who lived in the woods. They were famous for making potions. She quickly went to their cottage.

Rosemary told the gnomes about the attack by the ogres. The gnomes knew about the terrible ogres and the harm they caused. The gnomes decided to help Rosemary. They mixed some colourful liquids in a large bowl. After a puff of smoke rose from the bowl, the gnomes poured the liquid into five small bottles.

Then, Rosemary and the gnomes went to the kingdom of Renosia. They sneaked into the castle through the secret passage. The ogres were in the main hall. Rosemary and the gnomes went to the top floor. They could see the ogres below. They poured the magic potion on all the ogres. Once they turned to stone, Rosemary and the gnomes went to the dungeons so they could release the captured fairies and elves.

Rosemary was very happy and thanked the gnomes for their help. Later, the fairies and elves gave the gnomes a gift of gold.
