Question 22

Read the story below and answer the questions that follow. Baca cerita di bawah dan jawab soalan-soalan berikutnya.

Once there was a fairy princess named Rosemary. She lived in the kingdom of Renosia with the fairies and elves. One day, some fierce monsters attacked Renosia and captured all the magical creatures.

Fortunately, Rosemary flew through a secret tunnel and escaped. She wanted to free her people by getting help from other creatures.

While flying in the forest, Rosemary found four gnomes sitting on the toadstools. She told them about the evil monsters who took over her kingdom. She asked the gnomes for help.

The gnomes planned a surprise attack on the monsters. They made magic potions that could turn the monsters into stones.

When they were ready, Rosemary and the four gnomes returned to Renosia and splashed the magic potions on the monsters. All the monsters immediately turned into stones.

Rosemary and the gnomes ran to the jail and freed all the prisoners. Everybody was happy and grateful to Rosemary and the brave gnomes. Good will always triumph over the evils and they all lived happily ever after.

Melissa : Teacher, why are sea turtles endangered?

Ms Mimi : The sea turtles are endangered because the beaches where they nest are polluted. There is also too much development on the beaches. The noise and bright lights will disturb the turtles.

Melissa : Owh! That's horrible. That is the reason why we cannot see so many turtles coming to the sea to lay their eggs.

Ms Mimi : Not just that Rahim. Adult sea turtle are also accidentally caught in fishing nets all the time. Some people eat the eggs, too.

Melissa : That is so irresponsible. We should do something Mr. Siva. What can we do to protect the sea turtle?

Ms Mimi There are some many things we can do, Rahim. We should not throw rubbish into the sea or on the beach. We should not disturb the turtles when they nest.

Melissa : Yes, Mr Siva. We should protect their eggs too.

Ms Mimi : Yes Rahim. We should also protect their eggs by cooperating with the officer at the Turtle Sanctuary. We can help to take the hatchlings out to the beach safely. Together we can protect their eggs from being stolen and eaten by the irresponsible people.
