Every month, Julia and her cousins would go for the big family reunion at their grandparents' house. They would always wait excitedly for the moment their grandfather would give them money, "so you can buy yourself something."

Rubiah and Nasir, her two smallest cousins, liked spending it all on sweets. Every time, they would show off their sweets in front of the other children, laughing and making fun of their cousins. They made Linda and Kamal so angry that these two could no longer stand to keep saving their money. They joined Rubiah and Nasir in spending whatever they had on sweets.

Everyone knew that Julia adored the violin, even though the family couldn't afford to pay for her to have lessons. So Julia had got to know a poor violinist who played in the park, and she offered him all the money her grandfather had given her, if he would teach her how to play. Although it wasn't much money, on seeing Julia's excitement, the violinist agreed, and he taught her happily for months.

Julia showed so much desire and interest that a little after a year the violinist loaned her a violin so they could play together in the park. They were so successful that gradually she managed to buy her own violin, with quite a bit of money to spare. From then on, the whole family helped her, and she became a very famous violinist. And she would always tell people how it was possible, with just some money well spent, to make your dreams a reality.

16 How often did Julia's grandparent hold a family reunion?

In SK Tengku Fitrie, there was a boy named Syafiq who was a bully. He caused so much trouble in his class that his teacher Cikgu Mia Antasha, found it hard to teach class. He would push other kids. Not only in the classroom did he bullied his friend, but on the playground as well. He would take their pocket money and spend them. He bought ice creams and sweets to satisfy himself.

Syafiq had no friends. Until one day a new boy named Zalman came to SK Tengku Fitrie. Syafiq started right off pushing Zalman around. But, the more he tried to make Zalman mad, the more Zalman would talk to him and tell him that he just wanted to be his friend. He said "Why do you always try to make kids not like you? We could be good friends."

Syafiq started thinking. He said "Maybe we could be friends. OK, let's try it. We could eat lunch together." So that's what they did. After school they walked home together. They found out that they lived close to each other.

So from that day on Syafiq and Zalman were the best of friends. Syafiq also made other friends because of his friendship with Zalman. He found that being a friend made him a lot happier than being a bully.
